

EMOJIs and James, Peter, John, Jude & Ruth and Jonah – JAMES Chapter 5 Questions

Let's start with a question about money. Would you rather have just enough to get you through the day or would you rather know that you were saving, and saving, and saving for the future? Share why you chose your answer:

Read the introduction to James chapter 5. This may come as a surprise, but, according to the introduction, what is the main issue in our lives that can get in the way of God?

Read James 5:1–6. The title for this section is “warning to the rich” Now read the study note for 👍 James 5:1-6. According to the verses and the study note, is having money a sin?

Also, according to the verses in the study note, what is the main issue with money when it comes to our relationship with God?

The next section addresses patience and endurance. Read James 5:7–12. Read the study note for 🤔 James 5:7–8. How many prophecies are there in the Bible about Jesus? To teach us patience there is one prophecy left. What is that prophecy?

Read the study note for 🤔 James 5:12. When it comes to Bible studies, conversations, and standing up for our faith what are some simple answers we should use?

Now read James 5:13–18. Read the study notes for 😊 James 5:13 and 🤔 James 5:14–18. Verse 13 is another one of those verses that you should circle and star and put the date next to. It gives us instruction on when we are suffering and when we struggle and how to handle those. According to this verse, in times of struggle or suffering, what should we do?

Verses 14 through 18 also help us in that area. Read these verses again and then the study note and then write below what this means to you personally:

The final section of James is for restoring those that wander from the faith. Read James 5:19–20 in the note for James 5:19-20. The word repent is a scary one. But it simply means turning back to God. Who is it that you can reach out to to be a part of this study that you are doing right now? Who is it that you can help turn back, or turn to, for faith in God?
