

EMOJIS and James, Peter, John, Jude & Ruth and Jonah
1 Peter Chapter 4 Questions

Start by reading the introduction to 1 Peter chapter four. There is a change that takes place according to the first paragraph of the introduction. Who is it that we should learn to live for in chapter four?

Why should this be important to you?

Read verses one through six in the study note for 🤔 1 Peter 4:1. The note talks about what comes after the words “so then”. What is the reminder that comes after these words according to the verses and the note?

Read verses seven through 11 and the study note for 😮 1 Peter 4:7-9. Do you find yourself living life cheerfully as if God is in it? Or do you find yourself complaining more than you would like to admit to?

Now share which of the answers you chose in the last question and why:

Read verses 12 through 19 and the study note for 🤔 1 Peter 4:12. Do you feel as a Christian that you shouldn't have to go through trials in this life?

Why or why not?

Now read the study notes for 🤔 1 Peter 4:19. The truth is we don't get a free pass with trials and struggles just because we are a Christian. What is the one thing, however, that will never fail us no matter what in this life? Write your answer in all capital letters here: