

EMOJIs and the Missionary Journeys of Paul – Ephesians Chapter 3 questions

Start by reading the introduction to the third chapter of Ephesians. Answer some questions about the church you currently attended (or the last church you attended). If you have never attended a church, answer these questions as if you would be attending a new church:

Where do you attend church?

Why do you attend this specific church?

Would you change where you attend church if you were able?

Is your church a really good church, or is it just “good enough”?

If it is a really good church, or even good enough, who do you tell and invite to your church when you have the opportunity?

Read Ephesians 3:1-7 and the study note for 🤔 Ephesians 3:1. Paul had a cause. Joshua (according to the study note) had a cause. What cause or causes are you focused on in your life right now?

What makes these cause(s) worth living for every day?

Read Ephesians 3:8-13 and the study note for 😊 Ephesians 3:13. We all have times of trouble or times that we struggle. Share a time or a struggle that you had. Where did you turn to during this time?

Who cared for you through this time(s)?

Have you ever helped someone through a similar time in his or her life? Where did you turn to help him or her?

Did you pray for yourself through your times of struggle? Did you pray for the people you helped through their time(s) and struggles? Why or why not?

Read Ephesians 3:14-21. Write some of the key words or phrases from these verses that would give you or your family or friends strength in difficult times or circumstances:

Read the study note on 👍 Ephesians 3:17. What does the word “dwell” mean from verse 17 according to the note?

According to the verse and the study note, why is this so important for each of us?
