

EMOJIs and the Missionary Journeys of Paul 2 Thessalonians PART TWO Questions

Start by reading the introduction to 2 Thessalonians chapter three. There is an old saying that goes like this: “Show me your friends and I will show you your future.” This saying can be used by any person, regardless of age. Do your friends point you to God? If so, how? If not, why?

Next, read 2 Thessalonians 3:1-5 and the study note for 😊 2 Thessalonians 3:4. Who in your life do know that believes in you as a person? How does this make you feel?

Read 2 Thessalonians 3:6-12 and the study note for 😨 2 Thessalonians 3:6. We started with the saying from the study note. Friends can either lift you up or drag you down, and, it is easier to drag you down. What was Paul’s warning on the people we spend our time with each and every day?

According to verse six, what should we do if we have people in our lives that are rebellious, especially against God?

Is this something you COULD do? If so, explain how, and if not, explain why:

Read 2 Thessalonians 3:13-18 and the study note for 😊 2 Thessalonians 3:13. Paul tells us we should never get tired of doing the right thing. In all CAPS, write how the study note states this very same verse:

Read the study note for 😡 3 Thessalonians 3:14-15. In the introduction, we found out Paul was very direct in his writing the final part of this letter. What is his warning in these verses and according to the study note?

What are some things you believe to be true that you will stand for no matter what happens in your life? Be very direct about this, just as Paul was in this chapter:
