

EMOJIs and the Missionary Journeys of Paul – Galatians Chapter 1 questions

After reading the introduction to chapter one of Galatians, answer these questions: Loyalty isn't something we often think of or about with our family or friends. Yet, it is something we expect. Who would you say are the most loyal people in your life? Why do you feel they are this way?

Read Galatians 1:1-8 and the study note for 🙏 Galatians 1:8. In these verses, Paul shares about who is preaching the Word of God. Who is your favorite person (or people) for you to hear preach? What is that attracts you to that person when they speak?

Read Galatians 1:9. What did Paul say should happen to any person that teaches something that is against what the Bible teaches? What does that word mean to you?

Now read 😬 Galatians 1:10 and the study note for this verse. Be honest, and answer who you are trying to please – you can list them if there is more than one – and why you are trying to please them?

Do you feel it is better to please people or to please God and why do you feel this way?

Continue by reading Galatians 1:11-20. According to the study note on 👍 Galatians 1:15, what does the acronym G.R.A.C.E. stand for?

G =

R =

A =

C =

E =

Read the study note for 🤔 Galatians 1:19. Did you think/know Jesus had brothers and sisters? Share why you answered “Yes” or “No” to that question.

Read Galatians 1:20-24 and the study note for 👍 Galatians 1:24. Paul was once known as Saul and had an amazing conversion from where he once pleased people and served himself to where he lived a life of pleasing God by serving others. Who do you know in your life that had that kind of a change in their life? Share a little bit of their story. If this is you personally, share a little bit of your story!

You have to choose between one: the opportunity arises for you to be a missionary and you have to choose one of two places to go to help others. Would you stay close to home such as in your own town or city in which you now live, or would you travel far away to a place you have never been to serve?

Where would you go to serve others and why would you choose this place?
